

EAST NASHVILLE ARTS FEST

We are pleased to invite you to the annual East Nashville Arts Fest, Saturday May 21 through Sunday May 22, from 11am-7pm. The East Nashville Arts Fest will be held in East Nashville, a progressive neighborhood known for its shopping, dining, and community support of the arts. This free, two-day celebration of the arts will showcase visual artists from the Mid-South and across the country and will be held in East Nashville's Five Points, the epicenter of this historic neighborhood.

Join us as we kick-off a new spring tradition in Nashville and bring a fun and creative event to one of its coolest neighborhoods. Get your honky tonk on!

Application requirements

- Application deadline is April 10. You will be notified by an acceptance e-mail on or before April 16. Artist information will be e-mailed by May 1.
- This is an edited show and all applying artists must include at least two work samples. Artists may do one of the following: include a URL (below) where work samples may be viewed, e-mail JPG images to info@graziaproductions.com with subject ENAF Work Samples, or include a CD, slides, or color print-outs of work samples with this application.
- If you have worked with grazia productions in the past and have not changed the work that you will be displaying, work samples are not necessary.
- We will continue to accept artists as space is available.
- All applications must include two checks: a $25 non-refundable application fee and a $200 booth fee. Booth fees will not be refunded after the acceptance notification has been e-mailed.
- Booth spaces may vary in size but no booth space will be smaller than 10 feet by 10 feet. Requests for double and corner booths may be sent via e-mail. Spaces will be assigned on a first come, first served basis.
- Set up will be Saturday May 22 at 8 am. Additional set up details will be sent via e-mail by May 1.
- Electricity will not be available.
